Reception.
A delightful reception was given last evening by the Broadway Methodist Missionary society, introducing their new pastor, Rev. Welch, Mrs. Welch, and family.

The church parlors were attractively adorned with chrysanthemums, pot plants and ferns.

An enjoyable musical program was rendered during the receiving hours, from 8 to 10 p. m. Over one hundred guests were in attendance.

Christian Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Eddleman's division of the Christian Ladies' Aid society very delightfully entertained the Presbyterian ladies last afternoon at the Christian church. The society will meet next week at the church with Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Houston hostesses.

Opening Ball.

The Elks' formal opening ball, to be given tonight at their club home, corner of Washington and Broadway, will be one of the most brilliant social events of the season. The grand march will be at 9:30 o'clock, led by the exalted ruler, Mr. Louis Boyd, and wife. A number of out-of-town guests will be in attendance.

Beautiful Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Foster entertained Tuesday evening at the Dorrick Hills Country club with a beautifully appointed seven o'clock dining.

Two tables were arranged for the guests in the winter dining room at the club, which had been transformed into a beautiful autumn picture, with its decorations of autumn vines, leaves and fruit. Large pumpkins filled with fruit centered the tables. Miniature Thanksgiving turkeys marked the guests' places.

After dinner the floors were cleared and the old-fashioned dances were enjoyed by Messrs. and Mrs. C. L. Byrne, M. Kirkpatrick, Morris Sass, C. L. Anderson, W. D. Potter, Frank Gates, Homer Hinkle, H. H. Sayre, M. Westheimer, B. A. Simpson, Arthur Straehley, Hudson, Dexter, Downard, C. D. Carter, Buchanan, Harts, W. P. Poland, and Mrs. Bergen of Illinois, and the host and hostess.

There is no better investment for a business man than judicious newspaper advertising.

BREAKS A COLD IN FEW HOURS-TRY IT

First dose of Pape's Cold Compound relieves all the gripe misery — Contains no quinine.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only 25 cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Don't accept a substitute.

He Was the Limit.

Mayme—"He's too slow for yours truly. He said I reminded him of a beautiful autumn leaf." Ethel—"Well, that was certainly a very pretty compliment." Mayme—"Yes; but he didn't have sense enough to follow it up by offering to press the autumn leaf."

TURKEY DINNER

Roast chicken and turkey, and all accessories, also home-made pies, will be served Saturday by the Christian Ladies in the building recently vacated by Henry Baum, next door to Luke's music store. Everybody invited. 242

"THE SOUL OF BROADWAY" AT PALACE TOMORROW

production starring the celebrated Valdesa Suratt, the vaudeville and dramatic star for which the promising title, "The Soul of Broadway," has been selected. The exterior of this famed police station and the interior, with the sergeant's desk and all the grim paraphernalia of the place have all been photographed, with vivid life and action.

HOBBART BOSWORTH IN "COLORADO" THEATORIUM

Augustus Thomas, America's leading playwright, wrote "In Missouri," "Alabama," "Arizona," and "Colorado," and if given time he will very likely write up the whole darned United States and Long Island. But he never wrote anything bigger than "Colorado," in his roll call of states. This remarkable film presentation, like the spoken play, has all the bigness of that great western state, and with Hobart Bosworth in a really star part, it is immense. Mr. Bosworth is a college professor who goes to Colorado for his wife's health. A land shark and an army officer sell him worthless land; the Colonel makes love to the invalid wife; irrigation makes the land valuable; the soldier man is exposed, and the strenuous situations are as thick as blackberries in September. The direction, settings, both indoors and out, are

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."—Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

up to the Bosworth standard, and the directing shows Norval MacGregor knows the west, and how to show it on the screen.

This picture, which is in five parts, will be shown at the Theatorium tomorrow (Thanksgiving day).
